The Royal Bengal Airline UK tour visits Birmingham

The Royal Bengal Airline (RBA) tour around the UK continued last weekend as the RBA team visited Birmingham. Hundreds of Midland based Bengalis attended an Ifthar Gathering at the Bia Lounge in Birmingham. The seminar was organized by the Birmingham RBA team consisting of Surat Miah, Maruf Miah and Motahir Miah. Other members of the RBA team attending the seminar were Founder director, Mizanur Rahman, Managing director Shalim Rahman, Vice Chairmen Maruk Miah and Heron Miah, Directors Forhad Hussain and Mohammed Ziaul Quamar and associate directors Fokrul Hussain and Syed R Hayder

The RBA team gave an introduction to the UK based company and updated the guests of the RBA venture so far. An announcement was made informing the guests and the community that the RBA aviation Consultant Neil Hansford and his team had found suitable aircraft for its domestic and international services and was currently negotiating with the leasing and purchase of the aircraft.

Surat Miah, one of the Birmingham based directors of RBA welcomed the guests on this holy day of Ramadan and reminded people of the amazing response that the company has received from the community and the progress made since the launch seminar only a month ago at the Crowne Plaza, in Docklands, London. " we have made so much progress in recent weeks and because of the great response in Birmingham towards the venture we are planning to open the RBA Birmingham offices very soon", he said.

One of the guest speakers, Ex high commissioner Tazamul Hoque MBE, gave his backing towards the Royal Bengal venture; " its great to see young entrepreneurs doing something for the community and for Bangladesh". He encouraged the Birmingham community to invest and be part of this unique venture. Other distinguished guests at the Ifthar seminar included Ex-President of Bangladesh Welfare Association Birmingham, Kamrul Hassan MBE and community leader, Faizur Rahman Choudhury MBE. Both also showed their support for the Royal Bengal venture.

After Ifthar, guests had the opportunity to ask questions about the RBA venture and to join the growing family of Royal Bengal airline tigers. One of the guests, Moshin Miah, a retired businessman said " I am certainly buying a stake in the company but I'm also interested in becoming an honorary director so I am going to see If I can get a group of other investors together to do this because this opportunity will not last".
