The Royal Bengal Airline UK tour 'spices' up, as the company visits Kent.

The Royal Bengal Airline team held an exclusive seminar for the Kent community on the 19th February 2007 as the company's journey continues and the UK tour powers on at the "Spice Master" restaurant in Belvedere, Kent. Community leaders, local business men, The Bangladesh Caterers Association all attended the event.

Royal Bengal Airline informed the Bengali Kent community of its long term objectives to develop a strategic partnership with the Bangladesh Caterers Association. Plans for the new RBA London office were on display and the focused audiences were told of the series of aircrafts that the company will be acquiring for operation.

Mr. Pasha Khandokar the general secretary of the Bangladesh caterers association welcomed the RBA team whole heartedly and said the "Bangladesh Caterers Association is looking to build a strong partnership with Royal Bengal Airline in developing our community". Other guest speakers were Fazal Uddin, Rezaul Kabir Raja, A.S.M Ahmed Babla, Sirajul Islam and Md Salim Yousuf.

Pabel Kadir choudhury a director of Royal Bengal Airline expressed his excitement on the venture; "the journey has been difficult but we are now so close to delivering our first deliverable, our first domestic aircraft". The senior Royal Bengal Airline director Abdul Ashik Chowdhury, also a key director of the successful Al Hamra group in Bangladesh, reminded the audience of Bangladeshi history, "we helped to liberate our country by funding the revolution and now we must work together to conquer the skies"

Mohammed Ziaul Quamar a director and member of the executive management team said that "failure is not an option, we will succeed, we will get it right first time every time". He also reminded the audience that the construction and design work on the new Royal Bengal Airline office in the heart of Bangla town is due to start next week.
