Royal Bengal Airline sponsors the Oldham Football Club tour to Bangladesh.

Popular as it maybe on the international circuit; Bangladesh is better known for many things least of all football. However, the Oldham Football Club, a UK based First Division Club recently went to Bangladesh to play a series of top ranking Bangladeshi teams this month where the delegation was greeted with open arms by the Bangladeshi government.

Abdul Kadir Chowdhury, Chairman of Royal Bengal Airline, stated "we are extremely proud to see that a high flying British football club has gone over to Bangladesh to play other top teams. This is not only great for the nation's exposure but more importantly the development of the sporting talents of Bangladesh".

Three exhibition matches were hosted, with the inaugural match played on the 8th May with a top regional team at the Bangabandhu National Stadium (BNS). The results had been a close home win for Bangladesh (2-1). The second match, against the Bangladesh National Team in Sylhet, on 10th May resulted in a draw (1-1). The final match took place against another top tier team at the BNS on the 12th May which resulted in another draw (0-0).

Oldham's CEO Alan Hardy told a press conference held at the Bangladesh Football Federation Bhaban, on how to help develop the local Bangladeshi teams by working closely with players and coaches.

Royal Bengal Airline one of the major sponsors of the tour is proud and fully committed to supporting the local development of the skill-sets in Bangladesh by building strategic alliances not just in the aviation sector, but leisure and tourism, hospitality & catering and sports, All of which falls in line with the long-term business objectives of Royal Bengal Airline in developing and building the skill-sets, national pride, image and economy of it's motherland: Bangladesh.
